

CONCORD UNIVERSITY

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS, HONORIS CAUSA

Mrs. Kay Goodwin is Cabinet Secretary for the Department of Education and the Arts, a woman truly dedicated to promoting education, research, and the arts. Secretary Goodwin serves on the West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission, the West Virginia Humanities Council, the Prepaid Tuition Fund Board of Trustees, and the Professional Staff Development Advisory Council. A former member of the Arts Education Advisory Board for the National Endowment of the Arts, she was appointed in 1990 by President George H.W. Bush to serve on the Independent commission to Review the Grantmaking Procedures of the National Endowment for the Arts. Named a Distinguished West Virginian, WVU's Outstanding Alumna, Daughter of the Year by the West Virginia Society of Washington, D.C., and one of only four recipients of the national Public Service Award, Secretary Goodwin is one of West Virginia's most revered citizens.

For your humanitarian service, leadership and scholarship in education and the arts, Concord University confers upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.
